July, August, and September Events

Seward Johnson Scavenger Hunt/Photo Contest

Admire beautiful Crown Point as you participate in our photo contest and scavenger hunt. Find all 11 statues, take a photo with each one, choose your best photo, fill out the entry form and submit it to the Crown Point Community Library. All entries must be submitted by November 15. Entry forms can be found inside the Seward Johnson Sculpture Brochures. The brochures can be found at www.crownpoint.in.gov.

Story Walk at Sauerman Woods

Take a hike and explore books in a unique way! A Story Walk is an innovative and delightful way for children, and adults, to enjoy reading and the great outdoors at the same time. Bring your family out to Sauerman Woods, the Crown Point park located behind the Hub Pool, and explore the library's first story walk. It will feature the picture book, Duck on a Bike, displayed in sequence so you can read the book as you explore the park. If materials hold up to the elements the story walk will continue for July. However, interested parties should call the library to confirm.

City Wide Picnic

The picnic will take place July 3 at the Show Pavilion, Lake County Fairgrounds from 2 p.m.-6 p.m. The event is FREE for Crown Point residents.
